

Ball, Parade to Start Rodeo Activities Here

Barbara Nichols Is Queen

Twenty-first annual Palm Springs Rodeo swings into action with a Rodeo Ball tonight, followed by a parade at 10 a.m., Saturday, and the World Championship Rodeo itself at the Polo Grounds both Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

The ball tonight will start at 8 p.m. at El Mirador Hotel.

A HOST OF celebrities have accepted invitations from the sponsoring Palm Springs Mounted Police to join in Rodeo activities, including:

—Barbara Nichols, television and movie star, Rodeo queen, who consented to reign as Dorothy Provine, previously announced queen, had to enter a hospital for treatment for an infected eye late Thursday afternoon.

—Jack Kelly, "Bart Maverick" of the "Maverick" teleseries, grand marshal of the parade.

—Dick Whittinghill, popular KMPC disc jockey, high sheriff.

—ROBERT O. REYNOLDS, president of the Los Angeles Angels, new American League baseball club which will spring train in Palm Springs, "Sportsman of the Year" award by the Mounted Police. This honor was inaugurated last year to pay tribute to an outstanding contribution to Southern California sports.

—Dennis, Phillip and Lindsay Crosby, currently appearing at the Chi Chi, parade marshals.

OTHER OUTSTANDING participants in the traditional parade include the Long Beach Mounted Police, Riverside County Sheriff's Posse, San Bernardino County Posse, the queen of the Silver Spur Rodeo in Yuma, the prize winning Mar Vista High School "King Neptune" band, the Palm Springs High School band, and a horse-drawn stagecoach from the Silver Saddle Inn in Downey.

The Rodeo will include saddle and bareback bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping and steer wrestling.

Featured performers will include the Onondaga Drill Team riding bareback and without bridles, trick riders Pat North and Edith Happy, clown Sherman Crane.

MAYOR FRANK Bogert will be at the microphone, introducing the featured acts and giving a running commentary on the Rodeo, as he has for many years here and elsewhere.

The girls' barrel race, which proved so popular with spectators last year, will be included in this year's program, and top female riders from Texas, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and California will be competing for the $200 cash prize.

TO SETTLE A long standing feud among members of the Mounted Police, a "braggart's race" has been scheduled between Rodeo events. It will be limited to those members who own and ride their own mounts.

Proceeds from the Rodeo will be used by the Mounted Police to purchase additional rescue equipment, which is used in the pursuit of the organization's volunteer work as an auxiliary force with the Palm Springs Police Department.

FBI Enters Burglary Case

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has entered the case of the burglary of local hotel room last Sunday.

Originally reported as a theft of some $15,000 in jewelry, the value has climbed to more than $27,000 after a report was made by the insurance company.

GREEN RESIGNS AS HEAD OF GOP ASSEMBLY

Leland E. Green, newly elected president of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly, resigned this position at a meeting of the board of directors this week due to health reasons. He remains a director.

Al E. Hoover, second vice president, was appointed acting president pro tem.

Henry V. Cleary, Louis Lombard, Clarence Brechin and the Rev. Jeff Collins of Palm Springs, Miss Elizabeth Nelson of Thousand Palms, and Al Scharf of North Palm Springs were named to the board to fill vacancies created by the election of officers. Willard McKinney was appointed membership chairman.

KENNEDY WELCOMES AIRMEN BACK TO U.S.

Leaves Spotlight To Wives

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two American airmen flew home today to a welcome from President Kennedy and a joyous reunion with their wives after seven months in a Russian prison.

An Air Force Constellation carrying the RB47 fliers, Capt. John R. McKone and Freeman Bruce Olmstead, landed at nearby Andrews Air Base, where Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev first set foot on American soil in 1959.

MCKONE AND Olmstead, who were shot down by Red jets over the Barents Sea last July 1, stepped from the white-painted plane into the arms of their wives.

They shook hands with the President, who had dramatically announced to a radio-televized news conference Wednesday night that the fliers had been released by the Russians.

The President's word as he greeted each of the fliers were: "How do you do, captain; glad to see you."

KENNEDY, SMILING shyly, immediately backed away to make way for the officers' wives.

After the two fliers had had some moments with their wives, the President approached them again.

The fliers, their wives at their sides, stood talking with Kennedy for several minutes in the 22-degree weather.

A PROCESSION OF Air Force cars was drawn up to take the released airmen and their families to guest apartments at snow-covered Andrews Air Base.

In the welcoming group with Kennedy were Air Force Secretary Eugene Zuckert and Gen. Thomas D. White, Air Force chief of staff.

The President flew to Andrews by helicopter.

He then joined Mrs. McKone and Mrs. Olmstead to walk to the side of the plane and welcome the returning heroes.

100 Take Tests For Police Posts

More than 100 applicants for police officer positions in Palm Springs today are taking examinations to fill three patrolman posts on the local force.

The applicants took written tests this morning in the council chambers at the City Hall and tomorrow will take physical tests at the Palm Springs High School gym.

Taxable Sales Decline in First Quarter

Total for July, August, September Tops $5.5 Million

Palm Springs experienced a slight drop in taxable sales during the first quarter of the 1960-61 fiscal year. July, August and September, from $6,006,000 in 1959 to $5,521,000, city finance director Shelby V. Langford reported today.

The city reflected a similar decline in sales and use tax receipts, $58,694 to $57,128.

CHIEF SPECIFIC areas of the decline came in eating and drinking places, $522,000 to $473,000; building material and farm implement stores, $385,000 to $343,000; and motor vehicle dealers, $1,245,000 to $963,000.

Increases were shown in a number of categories, apparel stores, $318,000 to $332,000; food stores, $344,000 to $390,000; packaged liquor and tobacco stores, $129,000 to $165,000; drug stores, $513,000 to $521,000; home furnishings and appliance stores, $210,000 to $233,000; service stations and auto supply stores, $118,000 to $146,000; personal service establishments, $437,000 to $543,000.

OTHER FIGURES were: General merchandise stores, $310,000 to $305,000; other retail outlets, $284,000 to $230,000; manufacturing wholesale, contracting and miscellaneous outlets, $991,000 to $857,000.

Langford pointed out that the tax-exempt sales for consumption rather than re-sale, consisting primarily of sales of food for off-premises consumption and of gasoline, are not included in the figures.

Living Costs Move Up Again

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Living costs edged up to a record high in December for the fourth consecutive month, the government reported today.

Higher prices for food and housing nudged the Labor Department's consumer price index up by one-tenth of 1 per cent to 127.5, a new high. This meant that prices of goods and services bought by middle income families were 27.5 per cent higher last month than in 1947-49.

ACTION BY AGMA

Opera Company Declared 'Unfair'

Special to The Desert Sun
HOLLYWOOD — The American Guild of Musical Artists (AGMA) has declared La Cherry Blossom Opera Company of Palm Springs "unfair" and instructed all its membership that it may not appear or perform for the company, it was officially announced today.

Lee Harris, Los Angeles Area representative for AGMA, told The Desert Sun in a special delivery letter that he had enclosed "a copy of a public document, the action of the National Board of Governors of the American Guild of Musical Artists meeting in New York on Jan. 16. This notice has been sent to all West Coast AGMA members."

Hijacked Liner Agrees to Land All Passengers

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI) — Rebel leader Henrique Galvao radioed today from the hijacked liner Santa Maria that he would "accept" U. S. Navy protection against Portuguese warships while taking his 620 captive passengers to an undisclosed port.

Galvao, in a message intercepted here by the Navy, said he would "land passengers near the South American or west African port, giving preference to Africa" if he were guaranteed that the ship and his followers would not be captured.

THE MESSAGE, in imperfect English, also agreed to a Navy suggestion that American officers confer aboard the ship on the disposition of the passengers, 42 of whom are Americans. He said he accepted America's right to protect its nationals.

In Washington the Navy received a message from Americans aboard the liner which said the majority of them had requested a rendezvous with the U. S. fleet.

BOARD AWARDS HIGH SCHOOL BID

The Palm Springs Unified School District board last night awarded low-bidding Kretz and Wilson Construction company, Indio, the building contract for the 11,000 square foot High School arts and crafts building at $165,988.

The bid was 17 per cent—$24,012—lower than the estimated $200,000 construction cost. With resultant reduction in architects' fees and ancillary costs, the project will cost an estimated $36,732.96 less than the total pre-bid project estimate of $268,275.

JOHN W. GRAHAM was authorized as project inspector, and Pacific Materials Laboratory of San Bernardino was named testing laboratory.

The board authorized county counsel Ray Sullivan, Jr., to proceed.

Summit Meeting Is Possibility, Rusk Reports

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today that President Kennedy has not ruled out the possibility of a summit conference with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev if the "national interest requires."

Rusk said the new administration will seek to make greater use of ambassadors and normal diplomatic channels, but does not want to get into a "frozen" system which would preclude any other kinds of contacts.

NEW TAX CHIEF HAD CHECK OF HIS RETURN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Newly named Internal Revenue Commissioner Mortimer M. Caplin says his income tax return was being checked by a Treasury agent when he was notified of his government post.

The man who will be the nation's top tax collector said he didn't know whether the income tax audit was a coincidence or whether it was connected with his new job. In any case, he added, "I came out clean."

with "necessary action" for acquisition of the proposed section 11 site for a new junior high school. A $157,800 offer for the 25.36 acre parcel has not been agreed on by owners Mr. and Mrs. Culver Nichols.

NICHOLS HAD asked the board on Sept. 15 to consider a "more nearly square site" for the Vista Chino location, to reduce disruption effects on the land areas. The district bid was based on consultant's appraisal.

The board authorized the administration to proceed with site acquisition negotiations in Desert Hot Springs for lots one through five, and 19 through 23, plus lots seven, six, 16 and 18. Acceptance of $2,100 appraisals had been received from the owners is six, 15 and 16. Appraisals of the lots one through five and 19 through 23 totaled $25,000 because the lots are 8.6 feet wider than the other lots.

Experts Warn of Soviet Move

LONDON — U. S. — Soviet affairs experts said yesterday that while Nikita Khrushchev made a generous gesture in releasing two captive American airmen, it remained a cold war fact that they had been shot down without cause by MIG jets and were held incommunicado for almost seven months.

Council Supports Penny Increase In State Gas Tax

In a vote of 4-3, the City Council last night passed a resolution, directed to the state legislature, supporting a one-cent gas tax increase throughout the state.

The one cent will be divided between cities and counties of the state to help improve roads—and was requested by the meeting of mayors and councilmen held in Perris early this week.

Councilman George Beebe, Jr., who with Ted McKinney and Earle Strebe voted against the action, attempted to change the vote by pointing out that gasoline "is already too high in Palm Springs," and added: "Haven't you noticed the difference in the price of gasoline here and the surrounding area?"

Councilman Kenneth Kirk, who backed the move, replied, "I certainly have, that's why I buy my gasoline on the way in."

Village Baha'is To Hear Chester Talk Saturday

"God, His Mediator and Man" will be the topic for discussion at the weekly meeting of the Palm Springs Baha'i Community held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendershot, 1975 El Oro Way, at 8:30 p.m., Saturday.

Melvin Chester of the local Baha'i Community will be the speaker. In his presentation, he will examine the historic religions of the world, not with a view toward proving one or disparaging another, but with the spirit of: "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Inquirers are invited to attend and participate in the discussion which will be followed by a social hour.

PS Delegate Views Dental Congress

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When Dr. James J. Karr, a Palm Springs and Beverly Hills dental surgeon, attended the 34th International Dental Congress in Paris recently, The Desert Sun asked him to note salient facts on both the conference and on Paris for retelling in The Desert Sun. Dr. Karr's views have been committed to paper by George Laine for presentation at this time.)

By GEORGE LAINE

Conventions are old hat to Dr. James J. Karr, a dentist who has left his mark in a half dozen major metropolitan areas.

But when he received an invitation to attend the 34th International Dental Congress in Paris, the dentist speedily set his business affairs in order, brought a round trip Air France jetliner ticket and left for the French capital.

DR. KARR, WHO seldom attends dental meetings whether they're in nearby San Francisco or even nearer Los Angeles, felt he had to go.

"They sent me a list of the dentists who would be in attendance," Dr. Karr said, "and some of the topics that would be under discussion. I simply felt I could not afford to miss the meeting."

Nearly 1,000 dentists, representing virtually every nation and all of the continents, were to be in attendance at the eight-day session headquartered in the well known Salle de Chimie at Paris. Dr. Karr felt it was too good an opportunity to miss.

THE DENTIST, WHO has had professional offices in Paris, New York, Pittsburgh, Beverly Hills and now Palm Springs, saw in the meeting an opportunity to enlarge his knowledge of his profession. That might seem something of a paradox since the dentist has enjoyed considerable reputation in each of the areas he has practiced and yet it emphasized the stern logic of

Outdoor Inauguration Outmoded

Perhaps it didn't endanger the health of John Kennedy, but the outdoor inauguration of the President of the United States is as outmoded as the horse-drawn carriages in which the chiefs used to ride up Pennsylvania Avenue. Subjecting the President and scores of other important government officials to the discomfort and danger of Washington's rugged winter is a high price to pay for tradition.

The inaugural ceremonies call for the participation of many notables of advanced years — ex-presidents, veteran statesmen, clergymen and artists. Viewing the ceremony this year, one could not help feeling sorry for Dwight Eisenhower, senior Senator Carl Hayden, Richard Cardinal Cushing, Speaker Sam Rayburn, Poet Robert Frost and all the other oldsters who had to stand bareheaded in the bitter wind during most of the time.

And how about the wives? Many of them looked fairly comfortable in mink coats but the First Lady, for all her youth, should not have had to take such chances after having been hospitalized recently.

This year was no exception, either. Indeed, it has been even worse on many occasions. Ten inaugural ceremonies were held in the rain; it snowed during nine of them. The daytime temperature in Washington at this time of year is between 30 and 40. In 1909, when Taft was sworn in, nine inches of snow had fallen the previous night. Franklin Roosevelt was the first president to take office on Jan. 20. As far as the weather is concerned there is not much choice between March 4 and Jan. 20, although the chances are January will turn out to be the worst month.

The alternative, of course, is to hold the inaugural in a large auditorium that will accommodate all of the dignitaries. Provisions could easily be made to protect the President and his party in the parade and reviewing stand. The balls and other functions of the million dollar event are held indoors anyway.

Maybe in another four years they will build at the nation's capital one of those stadiums that provides a cover for spectators during inclement weather. That would solve everything.

In the Wild Blue Yonder

WASHINGTON, D. C. — To prefer the concrete to the abstract, the specific to the vague, is elemental journalism — but until the Kennedy Administration gets firmly in the saddle, we may have to reverse these old precepts. At this writing several ideas are floating around in the air — significant but, as yet, unsubstantial.

In foreign policy, there is a new tolerance for neutralism. Secretary of State Rusk stated it in his confirmation hearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He said he did not subscribe to the theory that "everybody not for us is against us."

THIS IS PRETTY vague, but I have found a firmer expression of it in another place. A very accomplished diplomat named M. H. Maiwandwal is writing a scholarly book on the historical development of neutrality. Mr. Maiwandwal is the Afghanist Ambassador to the United States, and has one of the keenest minds around town. While I don't hope to reproduce from a single interview his whole major body of thought, a few of the ideas may seem pertinent.

Chief foreign policy spokesman for the Eisenhower Administration, the late Secretary Dulles, took the position that neutralism is "immoral." Mr. Dulles meant, as he often explained, that Communism is anti-religion, anti-individual, wholly materialistic — in a word, evil. To be for evil, or even non-committal about evil, was in Mr. Dulles's Presbyterian mind an "immoral" action.

BUT AMBASSADOR Maiwandwal pointed out to me, and will say in his book, what the anti-theism of the Dulles thesis would be. It would be that the way to be moral is to be belligerent — to join in military alliances and such against Communism.

This is all very well for a nation like ourselves. We are threatened by Communism. We are leaders of the anti-Communist bloc. But Afghanistan in its 41 years of independent statehood has never had a border dispute along the 700-mile frontier which it shares with Russia. It would be folly for Afghanistan to take sides against an inoffensive neighbor.

BY FOLLOWING neutrality back to the 14th century, and examining it through World War I the Ambassador concluded that neutralism is not so much an ethic as a policy. It is a matter of every nation's self-interest.

Woodrow Wilson and Franklin Roosevelt both claimed the "rights of neutrals" to the high seas, and to peaceful trading. Ambassador Maiwandwal says that neutrality in the UN, for example, allows his country to vote with the West when the West is right, to vote with the Communist bloc when it is right (mainly, in his view, on matters of British-French colonialism), to abstain from voting seems wholly wrong to both the West and to the Communists.

WE MAY BE hearing more about "the rights of neutrals" when the new Administration hits its stride.

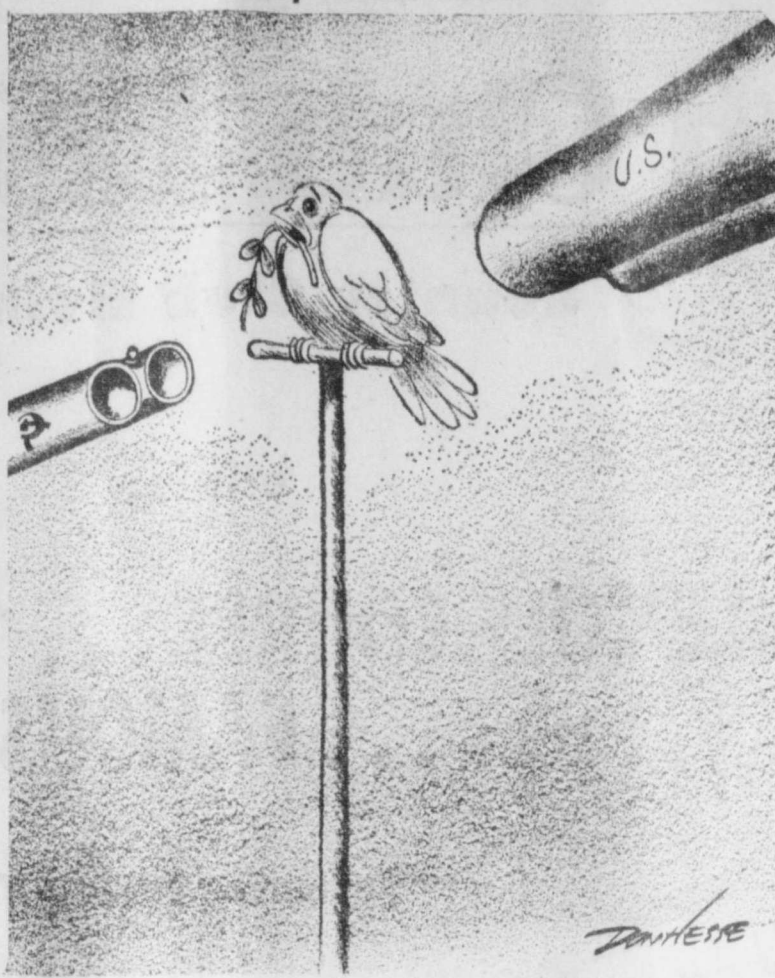

In domestic politics, the idea of political fission seems to be in the atmosphere. There are already attempts to discover or invent fissures between President Kennedy and Vice President Johnson, between Floor Leader Mike Mansfield and Assistant Floor Leader Hubert Humphrey. In the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn and Rules Committee Chairman "Judge" Smith have already split over House procedure.

THE REPUBLICANS also are enduring — or enjoying — political fission. Congressman Tom Curtis of Missouri has written his floor leader, Charlie Halleck, that the GOP — Southern Democrat "coalition" doesn't exist — and how he wishes it would go away! Senators Goldwater and Javits opened the Congress with a stirring scene of divorce. Former Labor Secretary Mitchell no sooner decided to run for Governor of New Jersey than he found how divided his party was back home.

If anybody would read the signs, explaining the meaning of tolerance for neutrality in foreign affairs, and of fission in domestic politics — oh, what a wise man he would be! But it is a mission for which I choose not to volunteer — not today.

'Keep Talkin' Fellas'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

It must be great
To leave a job well done,
With nothing to do but
Have a little fun.

That must be the feeling of Dwight D. Eisenhower, just a private citizen now and a so-so amateur golfer.

PRESS DISPATCHES indicate he's having a lot of fun, free to roam as he pleases with the spotlight fading. He's an ex and I bet he is happy.

No more of all that Pomp and Circumstance they talk about, just Mr. Eisenhower. Quail hunting in Georgia with a vacation at one of his favorite spots, the Palm Springs area, coming up.

I DON'T KNOW how he feels about it but if the statements of some of the former presidents on retiring from office are any indication, he's happy.

The presidency must be a rough job if you consider the statements of others when they quit office.

George Washington, our first ex-president is quoted as saying: "I'd rather be in the grave than in the presidency again."

THOMAS JEFFERSON also put it strongly. "Never did a prisoner released from his chains feel such relief as I shall in shaking off the shackles of power."

When James Buchanan gave way to Lincoln he told Abe: "If you are as happy, dear Sir, on entering this house, (the White House) as I am on leaving it, you are the happiest man in the world."

LINCOLN, HIMSELF, after being in the White House for a time said: "I feel like a man tarred and feathered and ridden out of town on a rail."

James K. Polk put it more simply for the records. "I shall be a happier man in my retirement."

All of which means that the job of running the nation and the world is a tough one.

ANYWAY, when Ike comes here next month he won't be surrounded by a phalanx of steely-eyed gentlemen who view every one with suspicion. He'll be able to whack away at the ball on his favorite golf course — Eldorado — without a dozen men deploying through the gallery looking for the least overt act.

It can be tough on the spectators, too. I know. I felt like Public Enemy No. 1 when one of those men looked at me the last time Ike was here.

CHECKING OVER my list of parting messages of presidents I can't find any record of Harry S. Truman's final words on leaving office.

Probably there were none for he is still talking. For which crack I hope my Democratic friends will forgive me.

IN AN AIR RAID manual, available in Washington, appear these instructions, among many others:

"All funeral coaches must pull to the curb and stop when the siren sounds although the occupants are not required to seek shelter."

STAN DELAPLANE:

Like Cats and Dogs

The best news today is about a cat named Topsy. Topsy's art work — a very creditable crayon of a man on horseback — went on display the other day at Foyle's Art Gallery in London. (I buy books at Foyle's but have never seen their cat art gallery.)

Topsy is owned by Dr. George Cooper of Hertford, England. He hung a crayon on a string. And bless your soul, if Topsy did not paw at it — pawing it against a piece of drawing paper.

WHEN DR. COOPER looked again, Topsy was dusting off the chalk dust. And there was the drawing. No Goya, you understand. But very good for a cat. None of our cats has shown any artistic ability. There was that ingrate Siamese, Freddie, who deserted us to live with rich neighbors.

HE HAD THE temperament of some of the artists I have known. He wouldn't do a lick of work. And he sat around all day looking out the window. Come to think of it, he had some of MY temperament. Though, heaven knows, even if I do sharpen pencils and stare out the window, I am THINKING.

However, Freddie never laid a brush on canvas. We have a new Siamese kitten now. And first thing I am going to do tomorrow is buy that cat a set of child's water-color paints.

FOR I DON'T KNOW how many years, I have been waiting for some resident of the manse to come up with some money — making talent.

I waited through the years while my daughter grew and grew.

She passed the child movie stage without spreading Hollywood at her feet.

SHE DID NOT become a child prodigy of the piano.

She went into her teens with a certain interest in young men. But not a one of them was working — the money I have put out on cokes to keep these young men content would make me rich if I had it today.

THE FIVE-YEAR-OLD heir of the family fortune shows little inclination to take over the burdens that lie heavy on my shoulders.

He is an Indian fighter at present. But there is no bounty on redskins anymore.

I THOUGHT FOR awhile of putting in a telephone answering service — both kids are telephone answerers. But I cannot bear the emotional strain of even one telephone.

"I'll answer it!"
"No, I'll answer it!"
"It's for me, I tell you. Leggo that phone!"
"Don't boss me! You aren't supposed to boss me!"

THE DOGS WE have had have been spongers. Even though I loved them dearly, I cannot help but see their faults.

(We now have a small schnauzer named Rudolph. His specialty is chewing shoes. If anybody needs their shoes chewed, call me. Our rates are very reasonable. Work called for and delivered.)

OUR BOXER-NAME of Mike set himself up as a watch dog. But he watched the wrong people. And it was almost impossible to get the milkman to deliver milk.

"Tie up the dog before he takes a leg off me," said the milkman. "Or else I leave the milk at the bottom of the hill."

I HAD A PART Australian sheepdog named Inc. I called him that because I gave him an old corporation I had lying around the house.

A smart dog — or a cat who could draw men on horseback — would have taken that corporation and run it into a fortune. That dog could have become the Wolf of Wall Street. He would not even clip a dividend. (There were none to clip. But this dog didn't even get out the scissors.)

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I decided to write to you after reading that letter from the woman who said her husband ate like a pig. I can top her! My husband has false teeth — uppers and lowers. Now I know that can't be helped, and he wouldn't be caught dead outside without his teeth. Even when he washes the car his teeth are in, but the minute he gets in the house with me, out they come!

He sets them any place — on the table, on the sewing machine. It seems wherever I go his teeth are grinning at me until I could scream. At mealtime he gums his food until I can't stand it. Talk gets me nowhere. He says it's his home and he is king, teeth or no teeth.

FRED UP

DEAR FED: Your husband's dentures probably fit poorly or he wouldn't be removing them every chance he gets. Insist that he go back to the dentist who made them. A minor adjustment could make a major improvement in your life — and in his.

DEAR ABBY: My dad is a salesman. His customers sometimes call him at home to give him orders. Don't you think there should be a special time for these people to call him so the rest of the family can use the phone without getting their heads blown off?

The minute one of us gets on the telephone my father starts to yell, "Get off the phone! Someone might be trying to call me!"

This has been the top argument in our house for a long time. Can you offer any solutions?

SALESMAN'S DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Your father should have a private telephone for his business calls. If the family agrees to conserve on other things, he can afford it. Where the happiness of an entire family is involved, he can't afford not to.

DEAR ABBY: I am planning to be married soon. My fiancé was married before (about five years ago) and all his friends and relatives sent him wedding gifts for that occasion. He was divorced and his ex-wife took all their wedding presents with her.

We would like to send wedding invitations to his friends and relatives because we truly want them to attend our wedding. But we want them to know that we do not expect them to send another present. Can we write on the invitations, "No presents, please?"

CONFUSED

DEAR CONFUSED: It is improper to write a message of any sort of a wedding invitation. If they want to lend their "presence," they'll be glad to send their "presents."

CONFIDENTIAL TO MURIEL AND FAYE: Try Alaska. The men are plentiful and the nights are long.

For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

TOO MANY SCROLLS

LOS ANGELES — County supervisors had to postpone a discussion Tuesday of a way of getting more accomplished at their meetings by cutting down on the presentation of honorary scrolls.

The supervisors never got around to the discussion because in addition to their regular work they had to take time to hand out embossed resolutions honoring actress Mitzi Gaynor, Wayne O. Cookus, state president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles and singer Pat Boone.

BOLD BURGLARS

CHICAGO — Burglars Tuesday jimmied a front door and stole $70 from James Tragos' restaurant next door to central police headquarters.

FIRE HYDRANT FIRE

A Keen Interest in Mathematics

WASHINGTON — The American Mathematical Society is meeting here this week to hash over such matters as the "lattice isomorphisms of finite non-abelian groups of exponent P."

This sounded like fun, so I beat it over to the society's headquarters to see if I could horn in on the festivities.

I HAVE A KEEN interest in mathematics because I use it a lot in making my expense accounts. People who make out an expense account automatically qualify as theoretical mathematicians.

At times, their mathematics may even become hypothetical. It wasn't, however, my professional interest that attracted me to the society's meeting. What drew me into this circle of heavy thinkers was my deep-seated fascination with double-talk.

HAVING SPENT a number of years here in the center of bureaucracy, I thought I had seen some real experts in the field of linguistic density, which the layman knows as "gobbledygook."

But let me tell you that our government officials are raw amateurs compared to those mathematicians when it comes to making themselves incomprehensible.

Consider, if you please, some of the specimens I collected while browsing through the society's program:

"THE PARALLELIZABILITY of solvmanifolds . . . grunsky inequalities and coefficients of bounded schlicht functions . . . coboundary operators on the ring of alternating tensors on a manifold . . . analysis of the bi-stable oscillations in the parametron by Lyapunov's method."

It will, I predict, be many years before any bureaucrat is able to achieve a protective coloration as thick as that. The mathematicians, it would seem, have devised a perfect way of keeping us from knowing what they are up to.

LATER, HOWEVER, I learned that this was not the intended effect. Actually, the society is eager to communicate with the public and would like to find some method of getting its message across to us.

I attended a lunch at which several society officials discussed this problem with a group of reporters. I could understand their yearning to establish contact with the outside world, but that was about all I could understand.

Despite their efforts to simplify things for us, I was forced to conclude that mathematicians are doomed to spend their lives in exclusive conversation with other mathematicians.

THE ONLY HOPE for enlightenment I can see lies in a talk to be given Thursday by Dr. Edward O. Thorp of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. His topic will be "Fortune's Formula: The Game of Blackjack."

I was told that Thorp has figured out a surefire way to win at blackjack. If so, I plan to invite some neighbors to my house Thursday night for a lesson in applied mathematics.

Five County Departments Bid for More Personnel

Requests by five department heads for additional personnel were put in the 1961-62 budget file this week in support of a policy stressed by Supervisor George Berkeley that personnel decisions should be made at budget time and adhered to throughout the fiscal year.

The supervisors indicated they will favor approval of all the requests at budget time, and made an exception in the case of the probation department with a promise of special consideration next Monday.

"WHAT I'M SHOOTING at," said Berkeley "is to eliminate these mid-year additions to personnel." After listening to Probation Officer Bert R. Van Horn's explanation of the needs of his department and the probability that a small amount invested immediately for additional help will bring in a large amount of revenue, Berkeley obviously relented.

"I hate to see my 'no' policy broken down so fast," said Berkeley, "but if it means bringing in money . . ."

VAN HORN RECALLED hesitation on the part of Berkeley when the board had authorized the addition of a deputy probation officer and stenographer for collecting from parents of juveniles at juvenile hall. He observed that since the employment of the additional help last September, collections of from $750 to $1,000 per month have been increased to some $15,000 per month.

He predicted that the additional personnel he now requests in the financial division of his department will add from $100,000 to $150,000 annually.

"HOW DOES THE additional help of two people result in such a large amount of increased revenue?" asked Supervisor Norman Davis.

"In the case of the juvenile parents it gave some of the personnel time to get out correspondence, to hound the parents, pester monthly those able to carry their share of the burden," replied Van Horn.

The financial division where extra help is now needed, said the probation officer, "is where money coming in from the welfare department, aid to needy children and so forth comes in to us. We process all the money. It is a service to the county and has no real bearing on the function of the probation department. We've got money scattered all over our office. It is vitally important that we get the help to take care of it."

DISTRICT ATTORNEY William O. Mackey and Personnel Director Don Spencer were also on hand to plead their cases, but didn't have the promise of additional income to support their requests.

Relating the growth of the county's operations and increase in personnel Spencer said that without additional help he will have to cut back the service his office has been giving. "The testing programs would have to be curtailed," he said. "This would mean that we could not be selecting the best employees available."

AS TO BERKEY's insistence that the board should hold to the policy of setting up personnel at budget time for the ensuing fiscal year and adhere to the schedule, Spencer disagreed. "I don't think county government operation can be bound for an entire year without any changes," he said.

Mackey cited the growth in the number of court cases and his need for an additional deputy D. A. and stenographer - clerk, immediately. He said he will need still more additional help by the beginning of the next fiscal year. The other two additional help requests came from the Municipal Court for a steno - clerk, and the health officer for a poultry ranch inspector.

Dressing to Freeze

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Department of Agriculture is at work on a salad dressing that will not separate when frozen and thawed. USDA said the basic mixture includes oil of safflower (a thistle-like herb), a waxy rice flour, and fresh egg yolks. Tests show the mixture remains stable at temperatures as low as 10 degrees F, but researchers hope to work out a formula which will remain stable at zero, the temperature at which frozen food should be held. USDA said the research is under way at its laboratories in Albany, Calif.

that were to be read in the Dental Congress were highly interesting to me," said the dentist. "I felt I had to inform myself."

Two persons on the agenda schedule particularly intrigued the Village dentist — Dr. Ferdinand Bouchon and Dr. Raymond Devin — both of them internationally accredited in their fields.

I SPENT A GREAT deal of time with Dr. Bouchon between conferences at the Congress because I was interested in his theories on the preservation of teeth," Dr. Karr explained.

Briefly, the Bouchon theory — which has been utilized on such persons as Charles de Gaulle and the Duke of Windsor — seems to deal with a last ditch fight against extractions.

"Dr. Bouchon insists that it is a rare tooth that absolutely demands extraction," Dr. Karr continued. "He told the Congress, in a quite critical statement, that many teeth are extracted when remedial methods could probably or possibly save them for patients anxious to retain their teeth."

"Chiefly, his treatment methods revolve about what is termed the 'thorough root canal and gum treatment' applied at the homes of patients and through some use of gum massage. He has introduced some very unusual and quite revolutionary techniques to the method."

Dr. Karr's time with Dr. Bouchon was spent in receiving explanations of Dr. Bouchon's methods.

BECAUSE THE DOCTORS attending the meeting were from a great many different nations, backgrounds, schools and environment, the convention sometimes took on the aspects of a United Nations session. All papers read at the meeting were translated into four basic languages — Spanish, French, German and English — and Dr. Karr, who speaks all of these except Spanish, found it only occasionally necessary to reach for his earphones.

"The convention was all business," said Dr. Karr. "Into an eight-day period the best thinking of the world's best dentists was distributed. I don't have to tell you that it was the most serious of environments.

"In fact," the Palm Springs dentist added, "the French Ministry of Health was the official organizational director for the meeting."

THE DENTAL Congress stood in a direct contrast to Paris, itself, Dr. Karr opined. (The dentist had studied for his profession in the French capital prior to World War II and thoughtfully explained that all of the changes that have come to Paris have not benefitted the storied city.)

"Paris is very different from the gay city it was when I was a student there," Dr. Karr said. "It has changed even from the days when I practiced there."

"There is an undertone of sadness everywhere, people are not smiling and there is no feeling of joy as Paris once knew," he said. "The only happiness I saw, the only smiles evident, were on the faces of the tourists visiting the city's nightclubs."

ALTHOUGH THE THREE dental schools that were in evidence in Paris where Dr. Karr studied in the French capital are still in evidence, they are not nearly as advanced as American dental schools in point of information and availability of new facilities.

"But the enthusiasm is high in France and most young aspiring dentists find it possible for them to surmount the obstacles of crowded study classes and sometimes outmoded equipment.

In fact, the other dentist with whom Dr. Karr spent much time, Dr. Raymond Devin, learned on that equipment although he now has the latest, most modern Swiss-made office gear.

"IF DR. BOUCHON was an experience for me, Dr. Devin was even more so," Dr. Karr sighed. "All aspects of artificial dentistry are within the scope of this man," he said. "He doesn't stop at dentures but explores all of the avenues of dental cosmetology and the esthetics of facial beauty."

For Dr. Karr to be awed of Dr. Devin is something of a non-sequitur. The Village dentist formerly handled the entire alignment of pulchritude that made up the lineup of women known far and wide as "the Conover models" — including both Conover and his most famous protegee, Candy Jones. He also performed special cosmetological work on a long and impressive list of personages.

Dr. Devin's work and methods constitute the most complete, most logical approach to dental beauty yet presented by a dentist, Dr. Karr believes.

(Tomorrow: An explanation of some of the progress in dental cosmetology taken by a ranking French dentist.)

Two Artists In Exhibit At 29 Palms

Mary E. Melton and Nicolas Yellenti Shown

TWENTYNINE PALMS, Calif.—Presenting the work of Nicholas Yellenti, oils, and Mary E. Melton, sculpture, the Twentynine Palms Artists Guild will hold a reception for the artists at 8 p.m., Saturday, at the Twentynine Palms Art Gallery.

Friends and patrons of the Guild and of the artists, as well as the public, are cordially invited to attend.

DURING THE RECEPTION Mrs. Melton will do a sculpture demonstration for the guests, showing how a figure is set up in terra cotta, and will discuss some of the elements and problems involved in handling clay and other media.

Mary E. Melton found her focus in sculpture after working in commercial art and other art fields for a number of years. She has studied under Jane Ullman and Greta Kauffman in terra cotta, and under Oliver Andrews in exploring the use of metal, plastic, plaster, wood and cement as sculpture means. Her works have been shown on invitation at the Harbour Arts Gallery, Vincent and Mary Price Gallery and the Los Angeles Art Association.

FIFTEEN PAINTINGS will be exhibited by Nicholas Yellenti, whose studio is located near Old Woman Springs Road north of Yucca Valley. Yellenti's subject matter in this exhibit ranges from desert scenes to portraiture, from genre painting of New York tenements to a classic subject titled "Her Place to Dream" which portrays the colors of a fading day reflected in a mountain lake.

In addition to being a member and a former president of the Twentynine Palms Artists Guild, Yellenti is a member of the Palm Springs Desert Art Center, where he exhibits work, and has been a regularly invited exhibitor in the Palos Verdes Art Show.

The Twentynine Palms Art Gallery is located at 73-959 Cottonwood Drive.

STYLIZED QUAIL PAINTINGS by Desert Museum artist Mrs. Janet Wullmer are among five new exhibits added here in the past two weeks. Other additions include a case of turquoise — rough, polished, and mounted — two Indian sand-painting replicas; Mexican pottery figurines loaned by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miner and Art Ripley; and panels of bird paintings by artist-author Mrs. Lillian Paca. Mrs. Paca, trained in the United States and London, has published three bird books illustrated with her own work. Bird shown is a Ruby Crown Kinglet. (Desert Sun Photo)

Allen Band Due at Riviera on Monday

By GEORGE LAINE

The first surprise of 1961 turns into a pleasure for dance-minded Villagers and visitors here Monday night when Billy Allen's brand-new orchestra bursts forth upon crowds in the Riviera Hotel's main dining room and Lido Lounge.

For Allen, who has been a Village entertainment fixture for several seasons, the new venture marks a noticeable departure from his former formats. Instead of a hard-swinging, beat-infected combo, Allen will set up shop with a sax-oriented hotel orchestra that sounds as though it had taken lessons from Ernie Hecksher and Freddy Martin at the same time.

LEST YOU FEEL that Billy has lost his marbles, wait until you hear the band.

Back on New Year's Eve, when the Riviera featured Mel Torme in the big show at the hotel, Billy's band not only backed the show but played a number of dance segments as well. I recall that I noted the band scarcely got eight bars out before the Riviera's hardwood was decorated with more dancers than a Zuni tribal celebration—and all of them were apparently enjoying the music.

Allen, who has worked in varying formats at such locations as Fresno's Hacienda, the Arrowhead Springs Hotel, the Hollywood Roosevelt's Cinerill, New York's Cafe Society and Miami's Lido Hotel, is strongly confident that this new band is the best he's fronted.

"It's strictly hotel," he said yesterday, "but the caliber of men playing in it is superb. I think we'll be so musically correct that we'll make dancers and listeners happy."

WITH ALLEN—ON the Riviera's attractive show stage—will be glamorous Janey Saylor, who can belt a tune with the best of 'em in this town. She'll handle vocal assignments with Allen and there is also the strong possibility that Allen's glee club—a sort of intra-band vocal fraternity—will also be putting in appearances mikeside from time to time.

The Monday opening of this orchestra bodes good for dancers hereabouts, whether they're living at the Riviera or plain ordinary old Villagers—like me—looking for great dance music.

Come to think of it, Palm Springs has suddenly gone dance mad with at least five locations in our town concentrating fully on moods for dancers. That's great, huh?

ENTERTAINMENT SCENE: Villagers who know Mel Blanc will be glad to know he's improving following that head-on crash Tuesday... He's still in critical condition at UCLA Medical Center, however...

McCall's is trying to purchase Saturday Review... Which is almost like PS Life trying to buy Mad Comics...

James Thurber, who opens his "Thurber Carnival" in London in a fortnight, had this to say about

Circle O Hosts Saturday Fete

The Circle O Squares, sponsored by the City Recreation and Special Events Department, will host the Dizzy Twisters of Joshua Tree at a square dance from 8 to 11 p.m., Saturday, at Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School.

All experienced square dancers are invited to attend.

BILLY ALLEN

JANEY SAYLOR

us all in a press interview in England yesterday:

"In America, love after 40 is obscene, work after 50 unlikely and death before 60 practically certain."

(Ernie Meinel says that what Thurber means isn't "obscene" but "difficult.")

THE SAFARI ROOM press opening gave your reporter another opportunity to converse with John Morris, who is probably one of the half-dozen really knowledgeable men around on muraling walls for commercial establishments. I feel he outdid his Silver Palm Room job with his grinning animals on the Safari Room walls and John pegged the reasons for the smiles:

"They're the happiest animals in all Africa," he said, "because they're missionary fed."

The Safari Room, with its leopard skin drapes and leopard skin draped waitresses is now the only locale in town where the waitresses can stand against the wall and hide from you. (And there's a couple of 'em who still can't hide too well.)

Holly Winters handled the early evening entertainment chore—before I had to leave for the Crosby Brothers' Chi Chi opening—and she's the only singer I know who sounds better just standing there than when she's singing

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Friends of the Ferrall's Playhouse at Deep Well will be delighted to know that their 1961 subscription sales are now exactly double subscription sales for any prior season of theater in the City of Palm Springs... City Council, take note...

Wait'll you hear the radio spots for the new "Hot Dog Show in Palm Springs" which opened last night here... One is a Baby Snooks routine, another a Charles Boyer segment and the final one a Russian bit... Best idea in radio ads I've heard this season...

I was watching Diane Dumas beat that blankety-blank drum out side Ryansville Wednesday night but I also heard Mickey Finn come up with the funny line for the evening. Quoth the Mick: "I don't care if your name is Ray Ryan, get the lion off the hotel roof."

George Beebe says why argue about whether a woman has brains or not... Instead, just busy yourself with the things she does have...

CITY TELLS 2ND CERAMIC CLASS PLAN

A second ceramics class has been started by the City Recreation and Special Events Department, to be held from 1 to 3 p.m., Wednesdays, at the clubhouse at the Polo Grounds.

The regular ceramics class will continue from 8 to 10 p.m., Wednesdays at the same location. Dorothy Steger is instructor.

Ex-USO Aide Visits PD

By RUTH STEINER

A Hollywood visitor, Miss Marie Beigh, spent a relaxing weekend at the Silver Spur home of her friend and former co-worker, Helen Furer and her mother, Mrs. Fausta Splane. Until moving here a few years ago, Helen was chairman of the motion picture studio U. S. O. tours for the servicemen for six years. Marie was one of her most faithful drivers during this time and the two women then and since have enjoyed a pleasant friendship.

Leaving Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs.

J. F. O'Connor drove to Los Angeles to spend a few days before going on to San Francisco where they will spend a few days. While away, they will stop in Sacramento to spend several days with their daughter, Mrs. Eugene Banner before returning to their home the first part of February.

A foursome, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Satterfield and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin "Ross" Patten, motored to Las Vegas this past weekend where they enjoyed a number of the shows. While there they met former Palm Desert residents, Mrs. Marvin Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Quesnel, who are now residing in Monterey, who were in Las Vegas visiting with Jack's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Langham. Mr. Quesnel is the manager of Sears and Roebuck store in Monterey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Miller (she is the former Lucile Armstrong) have been busy entertaining their houseguests and out-of-town friends this past week. At their home for a week was Lou's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Miller and their daughter, Janet from Portland, Ore. The Millers entertained his brother and family and old time friends visiting here, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moen and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips from Olympia, Wash., and the Fredrick Schmidts (he is with the Olympic Brewery) at El Mirador one night last week for cocktails, dinner and dancing to the music of Eddy Howard.

Leaving here Monday Mrs. Frances Barry will spend several weeks in Stockton visiting with her daughter, Dorothy.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Evelyn Sahland and her daughter, Olive Dyna, co-hosted a luncheon and card fivesome at their home, the Blue Lagoon. Guests were Mrs. Henry LaFogge, Mrs. Wilson Connolly and Mrs. Rita Davis of Palm Springs. Last week this same group met at the home of Mrs. Davis in Palm Springs.

Recent guests at the Carousel Motor Inn, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kaltenbach were Mr. and Mrs. James E. Gibson of Rolling Hills (he is vice president of Leach Corp.) and 10 of their friends who flew to Palm Springs, boarded a Greyhound bus to their destination. They returned via bus to Palm Springs airport Sunday and planned home. Other guests here were Mr. and Mrs. William Sorontino (well known restaurateurs) of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. John Saunders of Yuba City spent a week, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lutz of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. William Hackley of North Hollywood, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warren who spent a few nights here while awaiting the completion of their new Sandpiper apartment. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mitchell came to the Carousel in late December as managers. Prior to their arrival here they had managed a hotel in Disneyland.

Weekend guests at the Beaver-tail home of Mrs. Hazel Sergeant were her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allabaugh from Van Nuys.

An annual event was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Al Weiss, owners and managers of the Lazy Lonesome when they drove to Las Vegas to celebrate their wedding anniversary last Friday.

Mrs. Dorothy Berube is now located at the Parker's Lodge where she is assisting Virginia Field Parker and her husband, Willard, in the management of their lodge.

RECESSION NETS STATE WELFARE CASE HIKE

LOS ANGELES — The current recession is bringing an increase in relief and welfare cases throughout the state, the California Social Welfare Board was told today.

J. M. Wedemeyer, state director of social welfare, said December's jump in unemployment resulted in a comparable increase in the number of persons on relief.

On a statewide basis, Wedemeyer said, the relief rate now is 6.3 per 1,000 persons compared to 4.8 a year ago. He said for the first time in eight years the aid to needy children ratio has reached 42 youngsters per 1,000 persons. Wedemeyer also said requests for aid for the needy, blind and disabled are showing slight increases. The situation is most acute in San Diego, Riverside, San Bernardino and the northern lumber counties, Wedemeyer said.

The board met today to consider proposed expansion of medical care for elder citizens.

PD Volunteer Firemen Set Fund Drive

Emergency Crews Need Gear Badly, Says Department

PALM DESERT — The Volunteer Fire Department of Palm Desert today inaugurated a fund raising campaign to raise funds to purchase added equipment.

IN A LETTER SENT to all area residents, the Department pointed out that the department has recently purchased a fire siren, resuscitator, coats and helmets.

Still needed are two air packs at a cost of $265 each, extra cylinders at $48 each, a small resuscitator for the fire truck, two turn-out coats at $20 each, four pair of rubber boots at $15 each, and six helmets at $6 each.

"YOUR EXCEPTIONALLY favorable fire insurance rates in this area are possible only because we have a very active Volunteer Fire Department to augment the California Division of Forestry one man fire crew in Palm Desert," president Milo Morrison said in asking for donations.

Morrison also invited residents to visit the drill meetings at 7 p.m. on the first and third Mondays of each month at the station at 72-861 El Paseo Drive.

Flood Post Goes To Ecclestone

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Herbert A. Ecclestone, member of the Desert Hot Springs County Water District board, has been named administrator of zone six, in the flood control district.

Ecclestone was named by the county supervisors, replacing A. M. Wells.

PD Chamber Has New Status for Prime Members

PALM DESERT — A new listing in Chamber of Commerce membership was announced today by president Richard Coffin, a "diamond" member with donation of $1,000.

There will be only one such membership available, Coffin said, and the donor will be recognized as the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce's Mr. or Mrs. Palm Desert for 1961.

Coffin reported that all directors have become "century" members at $100. Other listings include active, $50; silver, $300, and golden, $500.

Members are urged to attend the monthly open meetings of the chamber, held on the third Tuesday of each month at 7:30 a.m.

Out-of-State Cars Set Mark

Out-of-state cars entering Southern California during 1960 set a new record for the sixth consecutive year, while a new record was being set on a state-wide basis, said Edward D. Nesbitt, Palm Springs district manager of the Automobile Club of Southern California today.

Entry checks revealed that 1,053,320 cars, carrying 2,858,944 passengers, brought tourists and new residents to the 13 southern counties during the year just past. This is just 436 more cars and 20,107 more passengers than entered Southern California from the east during 1959.

State-wide influx of automobiles increased six per cent to 2,129,370 cars carrying 5,639,326 passengers. During 1959 some 2,007,998 cars, carrying 5,311,676 passengers, entered the Golden State.

NEW PALMERAS UNIT OPENS UP

E. M. "Pete" Peterson, owner-developer of the new residential community of Rancho Palmeras Estates bordering Eldorado Country Club just east of Palm Desert, has announced the opening of a new unit of estate-size homesites on Fairway Drive.

Frontage of the new unit runs a half mile along paved, 36-foot wide Fairway Drive, which bisects Rancho Palmeras and Eldorado and winds up at the Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert. It's part of Rancho Palmeras' 120-acre development.

PETERSON, WHO declared that there are a few lots available in original units, revealed that the site of the new unit was formerly one of the pioneer Coachella Valley date groves. More than 300 palms have been removed to make way for the new unit. Totalling 40 acres, the site was purchased by Peterson from Kenneth Lichty, president of the California Date Grower's Association.

TEMPO OF HOME - building activity at Rancho Palmeras has been stepped up since January 1. Four homes have been completed and four more are currently under construction. Each is individually designed and built. Prices range from $28,500 to $55,000.

The homes, studded with special features, take full advantage of Rancho Palmeras' Santa Rosa Mountain backdrop, its palm trees and indoor-outdoor living attributes.

Halecrest Now Open for Viewers

The first unit of the Halecrest Country Club Village, low cost poolside luxury community at Palm Desert, is now open.

Homes grouped in units of 14 around large swimming pools contain three bedrooms and two baths and include such features as refrigerated air conditioning, built-in deluxe gas ranges and ovens, wall-to-wall carpeting and private terraces.

The 128-home unit is located about a mile north of Highway 111, on Cook Road.

FORTY-ONE NEW HOMES in unit number 2 of Fairway Estates are currently being completed, the topic of discussion above between Al Kerwin, sales director for the project at the Palm Springs Golf Course, and workman John Hennessy. GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Bare Root Roses Become Abundant

This is the month when bare-root roses are plentiful; they can be purchased in nurseries, markets, etc., generally they are marked No. 1½, etc., but it is wise not to pick the cheapest. Your new roses will be with you a long time, so don't begrudge the few cents you will pay for the good ones.

Most of them are in wetted sawdust and the like but do not leave the packages laying around until you feel like preparing the soil and readying the beds. The sooner you get it into the damp, prepared soil the better results will accrue. Whatever you do don't put a fertilizer in the soil for at least three weeks to a month.

A LAYER OF peatmoss and leaf mold at the bottom will slow down the water leaching and a top layer of peatmoss will slow down evaporation. The appearance of tiny leaves and maybe a bud simply means that the plant has laid around so buy yours early, plant it soon and bear in mind that the roots are the most important part.

Cut off any broken parts of the roots, carefully separate them from each other and lead them down the sides of the conical soil that you have already prepared. When putting in the soil to fill the bed keep pressing the roots downward until you have filled the bed to the height of the bud union.

WATER SLOWLY and keep pressing until there are no air pockets. When the first filling of the basin has disappeared you might find it necessary to put some more soil on the surface sufficient to at least half cover the bud union. From all this you will no doubt realize that planting a dozen roses is a lengthy day's work.

Much of the above paragraph also pertains to bare-root trees. As soon as the nurseryman has delivered a tree unwrap and plant immediately. If you are not ready bury the roots deep in moist soil. If you happen to get plants that have dried out cut a trench deep enough to bury it and cover it all in damp soil. It will probably be more than a week before the moisture takes the shriveling out of the bark.

THE BAUHANIA - often called the Orchid Tree - is an excellent tree for garden use. We have one that has taken 12 years to attain the height of 25 feet.

It started from three seeds which we picked up in front of the Palm House in the days when Vic Sudaha ran that building (God rest his soul). Result, the three seeds knitted together and forms quite a tree. Many of its seeds have since been used in the desert. In April each year the orchid-like flowers string out on the long branches.

LET US DIGRESS for awhile. We will go indoors and discuss indoor plants. Philodendron, for instance, with its many troubles despite the fact that it is almost a stock item in Western homes. Philodendrons do not build up a very large root system hence may be left for three or four years without re-potting.

Stellar Field Enters Classic Set for Five Desert Courses

Complete Pairings for Event

Headed by Leonard Firestone, president of the Palm Springs Golf Classic and Milt Hicks, tournament chairman, committee members Friday had completed the pairings for the second annual event which starts next Wednesday and concludes a week from Sunday.

To date, 93 of the leading golf pros in the nation and some from abroad, have been listed by the committee and the names of 33 others will be announced Monday.

PAIRINGS for the 128 foursomes are also expected to be available that day. The drawings were made Wednesday at Tamarisk Country Club and more than 150 golfers gathered to learn whom they would be paired with in the Classic.

Judge Hilton McCabe presided at the drawings and Ed Vines, Tamarisk CC pro, called off the names to the committee as they were drawn.

IN THE CLASSIC, 128 pros will team with three amateurs each on the first four days, a different pro with each team of amateurs each day, alternating on four courses, Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado, Indian Wells and Thunderbird.

The Pro-Am feature of the Classic ends on the fourth day after 72 holes and on Sunday, Feb. 5, the 60 low pros and ties go it alone at Tamarisk Country Club to complete the 90-hole tournament for the $50,000-added purse.

LEADING the 128 pros to Palm Springs for the event will be Arnold Palmer, defending champion and leading winner in 1960 along with Joe Campbell, winner of the $50,000 prize for his ace on the fifth hole at Tamarisk last year.

All of the other leading pros in the nation will be on hand for the event plus several from foreign countries.

In case of a tie at the end of 90 holes, a full 18 holes will be played the following day at Tamarisk.

PALM SPRINGS Honorary Mayor, Bob Hope, will head the group of 384 amateur contestants in the four day Pro-Am.

Other celebrities such as Desi Arnaz, Hoagy Carmichael, Kirk Douglas, Jim Garner, Phil Harris, Howard Keel, Jack Kelly, Ralph Kiner, Jerry Lewis, Ray Milland, Lloyd Nolan, Dennis O'Keefe, Mickey Rooney, Randolph Scott and Fred Waring are in the list to date.

AN INNOVATION in tournament play will be introduced during the Pro-Am with the professional member of each team changing each day, according to chairman Hicks. Under this plan each pro will play with 12 different amateurs and each amateur with four different pros.

CBS-TV (Channel 2) will telecast the tournament on Saturday, Feb. 4 from Bermuda Dunes and the finals on Sunday from Tamarisk, as the event of a tie it will telecast the finals on Monday, Feb. 6.

Proceeds from the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic will be distributed to local desert charities, Pres. Firestone said.

Agajanian Honored At Beach Banquet — BEN AGAJANIAN, 41, star field goal kicker for the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League, was honored Thursday night at the "Athlete of the Year" by the Long Beach Century Club.

LONG BEACH (UPI) — Ben Agajanian, 41, star field goal kicker for the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League, was honored Thursday night at the "Athlete of the Year" by the Long Beach Century Club.

LONG BEACH (UPI) — Ben Agajanian, 41, star field goal kicker for the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League, was honored Thursday night at the "Athlete of the Year" by the Long Beach Century Club.

Tribe, Arabs Clash Tonight

Palm Springs Seeking First Win in League

Still gunning for their first wins in Desert Valley League competition, coach Jim Workman's Palm Springs High Indians Varsity and coach Cal Farley's Papoose squad, are scheduled to travel to Coachella tonight to meet Coachella Valley High in a pair of games starting at 7 p.m.

The B teams will play the preliminary game with the Varsity squads following.

COACHELLA'S ARABS are currently 2-1 in DVL standings, tied with Banning and Indio, both of which have won from the Tribe. The Indians are still winless. Coachella was on top of the loop until it ran into Yucaipa High last Friday.

Coach Jim Workman's team has run into three opponents when they were at their hottest. Indio, against the Tribe, bucketed 68 per cent of its shots, Yucaipa, 67 per cent and Banning, 8.

THE B TEAM, also winless in three DVL starts, meets an Arababe team which has won two and lost one.

Standings of the B division:

Rank	Team	W	L	T	Pts	PA
1	Yucaipa	2	0	0	100	100
2	Coachella	2	1	0	66	138
3	Indio	1	2	0	33	128
4	Palm Springs	0	3	0	0	104

Rohde Takes Over Pacific Univ. Post

STOCKTON (UPI) — John Rohde, assistant football coach at University of Pacific since 1953, will take over as head coach Feb. 1.

He succeeds Jack (Moose) Myers, who resigned after the school announced plans to abandon big-time football.

SIGNS WITH LIONS — VANCOUVER, B. C. (UPI) — Don McKinnon, 6-foot, 3-inch, 230-pound offensive lineman at Memphis State College, has signed with the British Columbia Lions of the Western Football Conference.

Pros Listed to Date In Golf Classic

Ninety-three golf professionals, including all of the leading money and tournament winners last year entered the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic, Feb. 1 to 5. Thirty-five more, completing the 128 who will compete, will be named Monday. Pros registered to date:

CAL POLY FACING $2.5 MILLION SUIT AS RESULT CRASH

SAN LUIS OBISPO (UPI) — Officials of California State Polytechnic College have been served with notification of damage suits totaling $2.5 million as a result of a plane crash in which 16 of the school's football players were killed.

The suits represent 17 claims filed by the San Francisco law firm of Belli, Ashe and Gerry. The crash of the chartered plane occurred Oct. 29 at Toledo, Ohio as the team was about to return from a game against Bowling Green.

Prove It Looms As Favorite in Rich Maturity

ARCADIA (UPI) — Rain or shine, Rex C. Ellsworth's Prove It, who has caught the attention of western race fans, was expected to be the favorite in Saturday's estimated $170,000 Santa Anita Maternity.

A small but speedy field of seven colts awaited the taking of entries today for the 1 1/4 mile race. Today's racing program featured the $15,000 Pasadena Dispensary Purse at 1 1/4 mile on the turf. In the field were such grass course stars as Prince Cohen, Winshaw Land and Chimorro, all stakes winners.

Favored Star Due scored a wire-to-wire victory in Thursday's featured Van Nuys Purse. Salamon was second and Hillbrook third. The winner paid $4.20 and his time for the 6 furlongs over a muddy track was 1:11 1/2.

Marv Grissom Named Pitching Coach by Angels

Mary Grissom Friday was named pitching coach of the Los Angeles Angels by manager Bill Rigney and will be among the first group of the new American League club to arrive for spring training at the Polo Grounds.

Grissom's appointment completes the Angel coaching staff. Bob Elliott and Red Kress were named previously. Grissom was a teammate of Rigney's with the New York Giants in 1953 and played under the new Angel pilot from 1956 to 1958. A right-hander, he wound up nine years of Major League play with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1959.

A KNUCKLE-BALLER, he was one of the Giants top relief pitchers for seven seasons, both in New York and San Francisco. He had a 2.36 ERA in 1954 and 1.56 in 1955 in 43 games.

Rigney considers Grissom "a fine teacher of pitching to youngsters. He knows a great deal about the art of pitching and I am sure he will prove valuable to the Angels, since we have so many young prospects."

Grissom started his baseball career with San Bernardino in California League in 1941.

Laurye's Wins Sixth Straight in Basketball Loop

Laurye's Steak Ranch made it six straight for the year Thursday night when they defeated Joe Lewis Juniors, their closest threat in the City Basketball League, 69 to 51 to start the second half of the loop still undefeated.

In the first game of the evening on the high school floor, winding up the first round, Mazzula Masonry won over Jay Cees, 54 to 32.

JOE MAZZULA bagged seven from the floor and three from the foul line to be high for his team and the game with 17 points in the opener. Bob Conroy paced the losers with three field goals and four free throws for ten.

Mazzula Masons got away to a 11-4 lead in the first period and, although Jay Cees fought hard, maintained their advantage.

THE NIGHTCAP was a free scoring game with Chuck Jandro sinking eight field goals and four free throws for 20 points and high for the evening. George Hertzke had 16 and Don Stone 15 for the winners. Bob Clinton with eight field goals and a free throw was high for the losers with 17 points.

Laurye's took a 30-15 lead at half time then the challenging Juniors made it an even game in the second half scoring 37 points to Laurye's 39.

Standings of the City loop today:

Foreign Golf Stars Threat In Lucky Play

Bayer and Sifford Tied for Lead at 65; Palmer Has 66

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — American professionals teed off in the second round of the rain-soaked $50,000 Lucky International golf tournament today confronted with the fact that they were going to have to best some crack foreigners to take home top money.

George Bayer, world's longest hitter from South Pasadena, Calif., and Charley Sifford, world's greatest Negro shotmaker from Los Angeles, were tied for the lead with six-under-par 65s.

BUT IN CLOSE contention were: veteran Stan Leonard, Vancouver, Canada, with a 66—which tied him with five others, including National Open and Masters champion Arnold Palmer; Tadashi Kita of Japan, with a 69; Chen Ching-po of Formosa with a 70; Gary Player, South Africa, with a 70; Roberto de Vicenzo of Mexico City with a 71 and Ben Arda of the Philippines with a 72.

But Sifford and Bayer played the course Thursday as though they owned it. On mushy greens they rolled in putts from 15, 20 and 25 feet with such monotonous ease that the 7,500 fans who toured the course thought it must be easy.

TIED WITH LEONARD and Palmer at 66 were Ted Kroll, from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., who has been a front-runner in every tournament played this year; Doug Ford noted bad-weather player who has been off his stick; and Billy Casper, who in his last five rounds, including the Crosby tournament and practice tours here, has had 65-75-66-65-66.

McElhenny Joins Vikings As New Team Stocks Up

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Hugh McElhenny, greatest broken field runner ever to put on a San Francisco Forty Niner uniform, will perform for the Minnesota Vikings in 1961.

The Forty Niners Thursday gave McElhenny, center-linebacker Karl Rubke and linebacker Clancy Osborne to the new club, as each established NFL team contributed three players to stock the new franchise.

McElhenny, "king" of the San Francisco backfield for the past nine seasons, was the biggest name player to be acquired by the Vikings. The ex-University of Washington star had packed the ball for 4,288 yards for the Forty Niners while scoring 37 touchdowns.

Six Candidates Seek Honor As Miss P. S. Lanes

Palm Springs Lanes' current contest to determine "Miss Palm Springs Lanes" moves into high gear tonight with a "Hostess Night" featuring an opportunity for the public to bowl with their favorite candidate starting at 8 o'clock.

During the activity patrons will select choice from among the six girls seeking the title.

They are Cherry Powell, Diane Dumas, Vicky Davenport, Pat O'Queen, Sheila O'Byrne and Jan Sheridan.

Palm Springs to Be on Air Again

Bill Rigney and general manager Fred Haney of the Los Angeles American League Angels and the first two players signed, Bob Cerv and Albie Pearson, will be interviewed on KNX Saturday afternoon. The program is on the air from 1:05 to 5 p.m. With the Angels coming here next month, Palm Springs will be on the air again this week-end.

FIGHT RESULTS

WEST JORDAN, UTAH (UPI) — Don Adamson, West Jordan, stopped David Lee, Reno, Nev., 5, Featherweight.

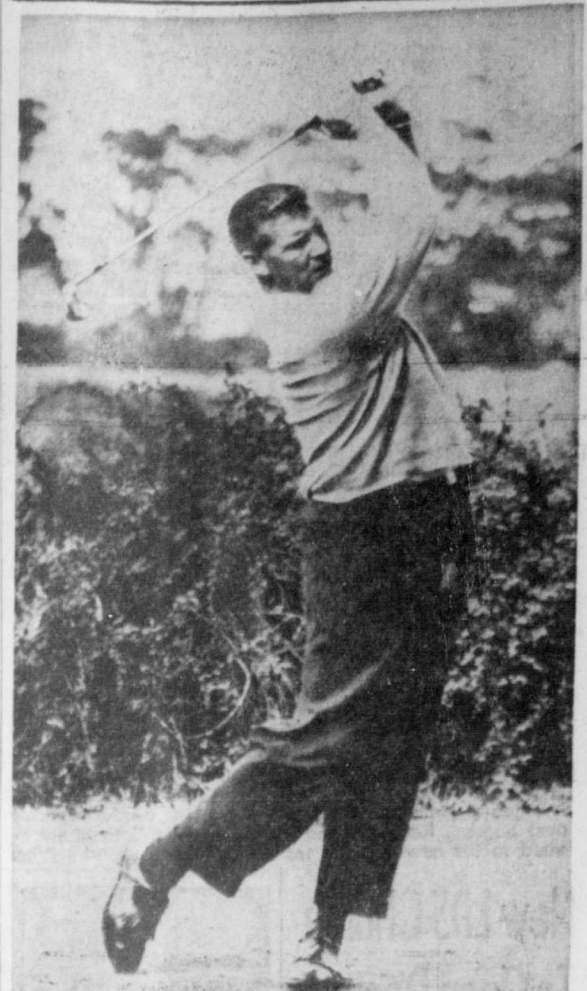

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Johnny Smith, 1964, Pacifica, Calif., knocked out Neal Rivera, 159, Los Angeles 8.

IT ISN'T EASY TO BE CELEBRITY

Palmer Now Paying The Price of Fame

By HAL WOOD, United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, the Sam Snead of the sixties, is wearing a worried look. He's paying off the price of being a celebrity.

The National Open, Masters and money-winning champion is the current "man on the go" and he can't spare a moment to sharpen up his golf game.

"I'm putting like I'm tired," he said as he sloshed through the mud in the first round of the $50,000 Lucky International golf tournament.

HE HAS REASON to be. After he finished playing in the Crosby tournament at Pebble Beach, last Sunday night, he hopped a plane for a 3,000 mile flight to Rochester, N.Y. to receive the Hickok award. The next night he was in New York City to get the Gold Tee Award.

The same night, he grabbed a plane for San Francisco to be here in time to play in the pro-amateur Wednesday morning. After boarding the plane, he was informed it wouldn't be able to go to San Francisco — but must head for Los Angeles. He transferred there and took a plane into the rain and fog of this city, reaching the Harding Park course in time to tee off in a downpour.

The same night, he appeared at a special dinner honoring him at the San Francisco Press Club — before he finally got a chance to hit the sack.

"WHEN I WAS EAST for those couple of days," he said, "I was so near my home in Latrobe, Pa., that I would have liked to have dropped up and visited my family. But I just didn't have the time."

"I could feel some of the strong points of my game coming back

CHP in Definition Of 'Safe Distance'

What is a safe following distance?

California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden offers this definition:

"That section of clear roadway between your car and the vehicle ahead within which you are absolutely certain you can stop safely, no matter what emergency develops in front of you."

Crittenden notes that this distance differs with each driver. The rule of thumb often voiced—"One car length for each 10-mile increment of speed"—does not apply to every driver, nor to any driver when roadway and weather conditions are less than the best.

"During winter, when lighting conditions are poor, vision often obscured by fog and rain, and streets are slick, adjustments are necessary in following distances," he emphasizes.

VILLAGER BILL RANCE WINS TRIP TO HAWAII

Bill Rance of Palm Springs Imports has been awarded an all-expense trip for two to Hawaii by the Electric Autolite Company for his entry in a nation-wide contest for Autolite battery dealers. Rance is one of 35 national winners in the contest and will be able to take his trip anytime within the next five months.

OFFICIALS OF THE NEW CHURCH of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints check landscaping plans for their new church at 1400 Avenida Caballeros, which will have its official opening next Sunday. Residents and visitors in Palm Springs are invited to the new facilities from 1 p. m. and attend services at 5:30 p. m. Sunday. Pictured are G. Stanley Smith, past president of the congregation and building supervisor, and Elder Paul G. Payne, who will be special speaker at the opening ceremonies. (Desert Sun Photo)

New LDS Church To Open Doors Here on Sunday

A new house of worship — the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints — costing some $350,000, will officially open its doors to Palm Springs residents and visitors Sunday.

Work on the new church and classrooms was completed this week and constitutes another step forward in adding to the ever-increasing facilities of Palm Springs.

THE PUBLIC HAS been invited to the chapel, recreation and classroom facilities on Sunday from 1 p. m., to pay tribute to the leaders and members who enabled the construction.

At the head of the building committee to supervise the actual construction of the new building was former president of the Latter Day Saints church, G. Stanley Smith, who donated overalls and supervised every inch of the construction. Facilities include the chapel, a stage facility; basketball courts, classrooms, and a scout room.

A recreation program has been inaugurated with persons interested to meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. The scout room will be used by the new Boy Scout and Explorer troops sponsored by the church.

AN INVITATION HAS been issued to the women of Palm Springs to join and attend the Latter Day Saints Relief Society which will meet Thursday at 10 a. m. to learn social science and theology. Classes in home making are also offered.

Residents and visitors are invited to attend the regular Sunday services at 5:30 p. m., Jan. 29, at which time the principal speaker will be Elder Paul Payne, president of the San Geronimo District.

Payne is manager of the Palm Springs Water company and a Palm Springs resident, and has been active in church work for many years.

Officers of the Palm Springs branch of the Church of Christ of Latter Day Saints, located at 1400 Avenida Caballeros, are Richard Noyes, president; Lavar Myler, first counsellor; George Sexton, second counsellor; and Earl Hall, clerk.

WHAT TO GIVE AN ARTIST? ... a painting, of course. This is the painting of an okapi (the unique African animal that is part giraffe, part antelope and part zebra) which Earl Cordrey painted for a presentation gift to John Morris, when he completed the murals for El Mirador's Safari Room. (El Mirador Photo by Conrad Hug)

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

A live lion on the roof ... stuffed monkeys in cages ... zebras and lions on the walls ... and an okapi in a painting ... were in the spotlight as El Mirador opened its colorful new Safari Room Wednesday night ... bringing Africa to the California desert ... Last week ... you could have searched all around town and found very few people who knew what an okapi is ... but now a lot of people know ... that it is a curious combination of giraffe, antelope and zebra ... with a tongue like an ant eaters ... and a skin that is so rare that it is reserved for tribal chieftains' use ... Looking around for something to present artist John Morris ... in appreciation for his colorful murals that transformed the old Kiva Room into the Safari Room (of course, the leopard curtains and "y" striped rug added atmosphere too) ... it was decided that it would be a switch to present him with a painting ... and fellow artist Earl Cordrey (who was in Africa at the Mt. Kenya Club this past summer) was commissioned to paint it ... It was a genuine surprise for John ... who has delighted so many people with his own paintings ...

Wearing a bush jacket and shorts ... boots and hat ... Ray Ryan arrived at the press cocktail party ... escorted by Mickey Finn (similarly attired) ... Diane Dumas wearing a leopard skin outfit ... and an "African tribesman" waving a feathered spear or whatever it was ... and made the presentation of the painting ... Betsy Duncan sang ... and everyone walked around to inspect the murals ... and see who was there ...

Among the surprises ... were Dad and Enor French ... who were in one of the booths that line the corridor ... Among others were the Clarke Swansons, Jack and Bob Kenastons, Alice Faye Harris ... Harry Joe Browns, Bobbe Perlberg and Noenie Hall ... the Charlie Farrells, James Abernathys, Marchesa Lily Gerini ... Bob Taliaferro, Lou Manseau, Mary Dayton, the George Vanderbilts, Nancy Holmes Mara Lane ... and many more ...

We were late ... so that someone had appropriated our table ... and we missed that white monkey drink (which I hear is very intriguing) ... but we had dinner down in the South Pacific Room ... preceded by a scorpion (that's a bowl-of-rum drink with a gardenia floating in it) and five long, long straws ... which maitre d' Bob Woods recommended to us ... It was fun ... and successful and the tests were good ...

Down for tonight's party ... which Joyce and Noel Clarke are hosting in the Ranch Club's Naughty Nineties Room ... will be those two vivacious debs Jan Ogden and Penny O'Mara ... who can be expected to lend youthful zip to everything from the Clarkes' party to the rodeo ... Jan ... who does so much for charity ... is assisting Helen (Mrs. Walter) Braunschweiger in arranging the reception for her first one-woman show in Los Angeles ... and Walter will present her with a check made out to her favorite charity for helping with these events which are certain to be a social as well as an artistic success ... Everyone is eager to see Helen's paintings which won such acclaim in her New York and Rome shows ...

Home again are Edith and Dick Edwards ... who spent the Christmas holidays in Los Alamos ... and afterward joined a group of Palm Springs and Los Angeles friends at Acapulco ... They motored home and drove through heavy rainfall ... from Mexico City to Yuma ... and arrived here Wednesday morning ...

Charter Members Honored at Desert Does Dinner

Charter members of the Desert Does were honored Tuesday evening at the Elks Lodge at the Seventh Annual Charter Dinner and Social. Desert Does are composed of the wives, mothers, daughters or sisters of Elks, organized seven years ago to assist in the Elks Major project program, handicapped children, as well as local, civic and charitable programs.

President, Mrs. Harold Smith was mistress of ceremonies and each Charter member was introduced and presented with a purple carnation corsage, by Charter President Mrs. Gordon Krysan.

A prime rib dinner was served in the attractively decorated dining room.

Program chairman Mrs. Landon Rich and her committee had carried out a Valentine motif, using red and white flowers and small red hearts.

Hardin Hart spoke to the group on the issues to be considered in the forthcoming airport bond election. All members took an active part in the question and answer session which followed Hart's address.

Cathedral City Juniors Are Sponsoring March of Dimes

The Cathedral City Junior Women's Club is sponsoring the March of Dimes drive for the Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert area it was announced today by Mrs. Ed Wills, chairman.

A number of events are planned to help raise this year's quota of $1,200. Mrs. Harry Estel, chairman of the Cathedral City P-TA, will head the Mothers' March, to be held the evening of January 31. All women wishing to volunteer to aid in this door-to-door campaign are asked to call Mrs. Estel at 328-2230.

Other fund raising activities include the placement of coin containers in places of business and the addressing of mailers to local residents.

March of Dimes funds are used for continuing research in the field of polio, arthritis and birth defects. In the past, 1938 - 1960, the March of Dimes dollar was used as follows: 60 per cent medical care program, 11 per cent research program, 4 per cent administration, 8 per cent education program, 4 per cent community services and 13 per cent fund-raising expense.

Desert Doe, Mrs. Anna Krysan of Calmar, Iowa, received a round of applause for being the member present who lives the greatest distance from Palm Springs.

The gala evening was completed with a silent auction of white elephant articles which the members had gathered together in order to build up their charity fund.

All past presidents: Mmes. Gordon Krysan, Theodore Lotz, Otto Grelson, Pat Mutascio and Harry Bogert were in attendance. New members introduced were Mmes. Robert Smith and John Matthews.

George Kainapau Honored at Desert Riders Luncheon

Beautiful Andreas Canyon was the setting for this week's Desert Riders luncheon, when George Kainapau was honored, and Jack Boyer was surprised with a big birthday cake.

Kainapau, who is a Desert Rider and comes down from Long Beach frequently to go on the rides and to entertain, was presented with a king-sized golden stetson, to which he transferred his peacock feather hatband. Because of a voice so hoarse that he could scarcely talk, he was unable to sing at his own party, but Johnny Boyle, who emceed the affair, had arranged a good program. His wife Tani and daughter Linda joined him in song, and Tani sang "For You a Lei" for the guest of honor, Evalani Robinson, from El Mirador's South Pacific Room danced and Pepe Callahan sang. Frank Bogert joined Pepe and Johnny in singing a song.

Roundup Boss D. V. Garstin hosted the happy hour before lunch, which was mulligan stew served on tables set up in the palm tree oasis just above the stream.

Lloyd Laffin, ex-Round Up Boss, was inducted as Sheriff, and he initiated Carolyn de Laitre as the newest Desert Rider.

Desert Riders' executive board includes D. V. Garstin, Frank Bogert, Robin Arnold, Clare Woodmansee, Roy Cummins, Tony Burke, Lloyd Laffin, Marjorie Balogh is deputy to Sheriff Laffin, and the following committees have been named: publicity — Ed McCoubrey, chairman, Cliff Brown, Hildy Crawford; Trails — Roy Cummins, Boss; Jim Chandler, Ken Johnson, Dr. C. A. Moyle, Boo Hoff, Bud Furer; entertainment — Johnny Boyle, chairman; Helen Henderson, co-chairman; Norma Bowles, Tani Boyle, George Kainapau.

Next Tuesday's ride will be to Sunny Cove for breakfast at 9 a.m.

Clothing Drive Planned by Mission Society

The Women's Baptist Mission Society of the Desert Hot Springs First Baptist Church made plans for a clothing drive at its monthly business meeting held at the church Wednesday. President, Mrs. J. C. McGee told the group that 10 million pounds of clothing, including one million blankets, were needed by refugees the world over and that any clothes collected during the drive will be forwarded to United Federation of Churches of Christ in Los Angeles to be shipped to the World Relief Committee. Contributions of men's, should be brought to Mrs. McGee's home at 66-262 Person Boulevard in Desert Hot Springs.

The group was also addressed by Mrs. David Larsen, who reported on the work of the National Council of Churches of Christ, and Mrs. Loring C. Cleaves, who reported on work currently being done by Baptist churches in Japan.

Club Style Show on Tuesday

With reservations for the Woman's Club's luncheon style show at El Mirador on Tuesday, already past the 200 mark, reservations chairman Mrs. George Manington warned today that there will be no at-the-door ticket sale and that reservations will be closed at 3 p.m. on Monday. "This is the arrangement we have made with the hotel," Mrs. Manington said today, as she urged everyone wishing to attend to complete reservations this weekend.

Until the Monday afternoon deadline, tickets may be secured at the social director's desk in El Mirador lobby, or by calling Mrs. Manington, Mrs. Howard Mathews or Mrs. C. C. Hutchens.

Several philanthropic organizations have reserved tables for the luncheon showing, including WAIF, Pathfinders, Palm Springs Auxiliary of AVCCF and Wellfare & Friendly Aid.

At the WAIF table will be Mmes. John Logan Abernathy, Glenn Austin, Perry Gill, Robert Lippert, Donald McDermott, Cy Oistad, Leo Owens and Ronald Vincent from Piedmont.

Pathfinders have a table reservation as does Mrs. Ben Gale, who had planned a party for 20. These may be combined, Pathfinder president Mrs. S. P. Manasse said today. Pathfinder members attending will include, Mmes.

Edwin Fallgren, Austin McManus, John Costello, S. P. Manasse and others not yet announced.

At the Angel View table will be Mmes. Earle Arnold, S. A. Arnold, Richard Bagdasarian, Roy Burton, George Chandler, Francis Burton Cobb of LaCanada, Llewelyn Edgerton, Francis Gudger, C. C. Hutchens, Howard Matthews, William George Morris, Daniel L. Newton, Ralph Parker, Ben Read, Ross Winans, Irwin D. Wright, James Carlisle, Jack Copass, Jack Williams, Paul Berkholder, Alex Kerwin, Mmes. Vera Farrell, Charlotte Goodwin, Fern Jones, and others.

At a "no hostess" table will be Mmes. Edward Banning, Fred D. Halliday, Homer Hilton, Jack Conway of Alaska, Miss Ella Kelley and others.

Among others with early reservations are: Mmes. Charles Becker, Ed Robbin, Ward Warner of New York, G. A. Burns of Kansas City, Frank Ewing, Hampton Robinson of Houston, Joan McManus, Alex Hill of Frankfort, Kentucky, Richard Holston of New York, Richard Bynion of Pasadena, Dora L. Huffaker and Bessie Greer of Los Angeles, in addition to all the prominent women who are active in the Woman's Club.

Professional mannequins will model resort collections of world-famous designers, including, Anthony Blotta, Wragge, Montesanto, Rentner, Charles LeMaire, Ben Reig, Jenkins, Marquise, Irene, Edith Small, Peggy Hunt and Georgia Bullock ... all brought to Palm Springs through Bullocks of Palm Springs and Bullocks Wilshire.

El Mirador's beautiful Silver Palm Room will have additional decorations in the pink and silver motif, chosen by Mrs. Chester Matson and her decorating committee. A four-course luncheon will be served at 12:15 p.m., preceding the style show, and a combo of three fine artists will play background music for the luncheon and the show. There will be valuable table favors, according to Mrs. Herbert W. Burns, fashion show chairman. Co-chairman is Mrs. Marvin Cartwright.

Proceeds from the show will go to the Club's scholarship fund.

This is the first time the annual style show has been combined with a luncheon and the first time it has ever been held anywhere outside the clubhouse, so this is expected to be the biggest affair yet. With more seating space available, Woman's Club president Mrs. George O. Wheeler said today that the public is welcome to attend, but reservations must be made. Tickets are $7.50 each.

Tamarisk Women Golfers Get New Officers and Prizes

New board members were announced and January's tournament winners were awarded prizes when Tamarisk Country Club's Women's Golfing Auxiliary held its annual luncheon - meeting Tuesday.

In the absence of Veniece Hanson, chairman of the nominating committee, Sylvia Golan presided when the board of directors for the 1961-1962 season (who had been appointed at an earlier meeting) were announced to the general membership.

Supervisors Argue Over Salary Hike

Davis, Jones Tiff Over Grand Jury Bid for $12,000

Supervisor Norman Davis of Beaumont, newest member of the Board of Supervisors, staunchly supported a recommendation by the Grand Jury this week that the salaries of the supervisors, district attorney, and county auditor be increased by legislative action. The proposed increase for supervisors was from $8,400 to $12,000.

"On the basis of the work I've done in the few weeks I've been in office I think the taxpayers are getting more than they bargained for for the $8,400 per year salary now paid me," declared Davis. "It is folly to expect public servants to do the work that should be done, without proper reimbursement."

SUPERVISOR WILLIAM Jones disagreed with Davis. "In view of economic conditions," said Jones, "I think the Grand Jury has gone completely overboard."

Jones made a motion that the board inform the legislature that it is opposed to any of the increases proposed by the Grand Jury. Supervisor Fred McCall voted with him. Supervisor Berkey voted with Davis against the motion. With Supervisor Paul Anderson absent the motion was lost, and Davis, as board chairman, directed that the Grand Jury report be "taken under advisement and filed." This would seem to indicate that the matter may be brought up again when a full board is present.

"IT SHOULD AT least be studied," said Davis. He said he might not agree with the recommendations exactly as they were made.

The Grand Jury recommended that the district attorney's salary of $15,000 be increased to $18,000 and that of the auditor from $9,600 to $12,500.

"As to economic conditions," said Berkey, "we are in a recession now but I hope it is not a full-fledged depression. I believe there will be more activity by next summer."

THE LAW PROVIDES that salary increases for public officials cannot become effective until they complete their term of office. In other words, they must complete their term at the salary in effect when they were elected.

So far as the supervisors are concerned, this would mean that if the legislature should approve the salary raises they would not become effective for Davis and Jones until 1965 and for supervisors of the other three districts when they start new terms in 1963.

SPEAKING ON the economic situation Supervisor McCall said, "I don't think we should speculate on what is going to happen in the future. When better times actually come along we might take action."

LOYALTY OATH BEATEN WITH ACLU'S TEST

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — It is unconstitutional for a California school board to require statements of loyalty from organizations seeking to use school facilities, according to the state Supreme Court.

The high court, in a 4-3 decision, Wednesday ordered the Los Angeles and San Diego school boards in two separate cases to permit the American Civil Liberties Union to hold meetings in their buildings without filing "statements of information."

Quartet to Sing At CV Christian Dinner Function

INDIO — A combination of music, message and missionary challenge will be featured at the Ladies Night Dinner of the Men's Fellowship of the Coachella Valley Christian Church on Tuesday, Feb. 7, at the Pinecroft Restaurant, as the World Vision Quartet of Pasadena makes a personal appearance.

The World Vision Quartet with their unique blending of gospel songs, spirituals and entertaining singing has appeared before over a million and a half people in nearly 4,000 meetings in the past 14 years.

They participated in the 1957 city-wide Crusade for Christ in Manila, Philippines. In 1955 they visited Japan, Korea, Okinawa, Formosa, Hong Kong and the Philippines in a nine-week evangelistic and missionary tour. During the past several years they have appeared on radio and television, and regularly on the World Vision ABC network radio program.

The quartet has been blending its musical ministry as a unit since its members were college students together in 1946. They joined forces that year at George Fox College in Newberg, Oregon. Each member of the quartet married his college sweetheart and is now a family man with at least three children. Each wife graduated from the college the same year as her husband. Two of the men are ministers.

The John T. Carey's, Apartment No. 1, have returned from a holiday trip to Chicago.

Flo and Walter Espeland have just arrived and opened their Apartment No. 42 for the winter season. They motored south from their summer home in Tacoma, Wash., stopping en route for a weekend in San Francisco, visiting their son, Walter, Jr., and wife. They report considerable rain in the Puget Sound city and are glad to see the desert sun.

William A. Sullivan and wife of Olympia, Wash., are ensconced in the Prewitt Apartment No. 30. Mr. Sullivan is the former Washington State Insurance Commissioner and after 25 years of service was named Insurance Commissioner Emeritus — the only man in the history of the department to hold that office.

Mrs. Ruth Galbraith has returned from Tacoma where she spent the holidays with the families of two sons and a daughter, flying back with son Jack and wife. Their daughter, Linda, entered the figure skating championship held in the Polar Palace in Hollywood. She placed third in the women's division and has qualified for the national competition to be held in Colorado Springs, Colo. The Jack Galbraiths returned to Tacoma Wednesday.

The Roger Neals, Apartment 49 recently spent a weekend in San Diego and La Jolla visiting former residents of Yakima, Wash their summer residence.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Erdman have taken the Lodge Apartment No. 259. He is a former automobile dealer in Rexburg, Idaho, although they call Salt Lake City their home now.

The Floyd Andres were recent Braemar visitors, coming from their home in Garden Grove. They are former owners here and have many friends at Braemar. He is now promoting a housing project at Borrego Springs.

Friends of Isabel and Tim Wallace of Apartment 240 will be glad to know that both are recovering from their recent very serious accident. Both are now out of the hospital and visited briefly at Braemar before returning to their home in Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Glass have returned to their Braemar Apartment No. 3 for the winter season. Their home is in Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Glass is in the investment business.

Maggie Mayser, Apartment 213, has had as her guest for several days Mrs. Gordon Tyler, who just recently returned to her home in Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. G. James Caldwell of St. Paul are occupying the Ruth Lupe Apartment No. 7 for several months. He is president of the Caldwell Phillips Investment Co. of St. Paul.

Fred and Catherine Wines motored to Riverside Tuesday for luncheon at the Mission Inn, after which they called on Mrs. Helen Holey and her Washington guest, Mrs. Dorothy Richards. All are mutual friends of long standing. The Holey's recently purchased a new home in the Victoria Golf Club area in Riverside.

The Jens L. Hansens, Apartment No. 216, recently celebrated their

GOP, DEMOS GANG UP FOR TAX CUT

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A coalition of Republicans and Democrats in the Assembly introduced a bill today to reduce taxes by $9 million despite Gov. Edmund G. Brown's threat of a veto.

Assemblyman Milton Marks, R-San Francisco, with the backing of 51 of the 80 lower house members, sponsored a bill to permit taxpayers to deduct from federal and state income taxes the amount they have paid during the year in state tobacco taxes.

MARKS' BILL WAS introduced the same day as the governor's $2.6 billion budget program was presented to the Assembly. In his budget message to the legislature Wednesday, Brown warned that he will exercise the gubernatorial veto to power to keep the 1961-62 spending program in balance.

Brown's budget bill, introduced by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, became AB800, the same number the governor's first budget was assigned in 1959.

Introduction of the bill in the lower house came as spokesmen for both Democrats and Republicans attacked one phase of Brown's program — his abandonment of a pay-as-you-go policy in favor of issuing bonds to finance a $100 million building program.

Ray Ryan's El Mirador HOTEL
PALM SPRINGS • CALIFORNIA

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Rumors are flooding the town that I'm in the know on the recipe for El Mirador's Coq au Vin; that I'm withholding information on it from my friends.

Folks, please believe me. The rumors are false. Nothing could be further removed from the truth.

Our famed chef, Edmond Johnson, and I appreciate the terrific compliments reflected in the requests for the recipe. But all I know about Coq au Vin and its scrumptious sauce, marnazienne, is that it tastes greater than great.

The recipe is a deep, dark secret, having been handed down through generation after generation in the La Haute Savoie sector of the French Alps. Mr. Johnson served his apprenticeship as chef at the Hotel De la Gare in the town of Cluses there. That's where he came into possession of the recipe—a treasure he intends to guard with his life.

Chef Johnson simply refuses to discuss the recipe. Even with me. He'll tell you the dish is his favorite way of preparing chicken. He'll disclose how much cooking time it requires. But what he puts into it and the sauce that compliments it, never. He'll blow his top if you dare suggest he reveal it.

So please don't ask him. Chef Johnson's top is too crammed with ideas for goodies for your dining pleasure in the Silver Palm Room. We just can't afford to disturb his thinking machine.

All we can suggest is that you come to El Mirador and try Coq au Vin yourself. Perhaps you can figure out the secret. I hope somebody does and lets me in on it. You'll find me dancing or tapping my toes to the dancing rhythms of Eddy Howard and his 15-piece orchestra any night you can make it. Here's hoping I'll be seeing you soon.

As ever,

Ray Ryan

SANDPIPER

Golf Play, Sun Lures Many Guests

Ideal January weather and the various ladies and men's golf tournaments in the area brought Sandpiper apartment owners "back home," as well as influencing a score of formal and informal visits.

On hand at the Edmund Barnes cottage were son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Barnes, Jr., of Pasadena. The Barnes are one of the newer Sandpiper owners and have a unique Japanese patio, bridge and all as part of their decor in the fourth unit.

All the way from Stamford, Conn. were Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller. On hand for several weeks after a chilly winter the Dr. and his wife were happy to be in the desert sun again. Dr. Miller will return shortly to his practice with Mrs. Miller staying on for a few more days.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Haines from Sturgis, Mich., are enjoying the A. H. Gude apartment during January. The Gudes are in Chicago. Mr. Haines is the publisher-owner of the Sturgis Daily Journal in Michigan and his wife is the former Lorna Doone Jackson of the Chicago Opera Company.

Another mid-westerner couple joining the Sandpiper ranks are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Huarisa from Winnetka, Ill. Mr. Huarisa is a retired executive with the Admiral Corporation and is known in the desert for his early organization efforts at Thunderbird. He was also one of the original 16 members of the Eldorado Country Club where he is a life member.

Other visitors at Sandpiper over the past few days were the Robert McConaughy's of Fort Ord. Mr. and Mrs. McConaughy were the guests of Dorothy Root and own a large cattle ranch at the far tip of the northeastern part of California a few miles from Oregon and Nevada.

The L. John Nelsons are entertaining the J. Arthur Johnsons of Long Beach. The Johnsons originally lived in Seattle, Wash., the home state of the Nelsons. The Nelsons are from Spokane.

New Sandpiper owners, the George Reuters have guests, Mrs. Frances Cornwell and her daughter.

MARINE WARRANT RETURNS TO EL TORO

Marine Warrant Officer Kenneth E. Allen, son of Mrs. Mildred W. Rogers of 3222 Paseo Barbara, has returned to the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana, with Marine Composite Reconnaissance Squadron Three following two weeks of photo and electronic reconnaissance maneuvers at the Marine Corps Auxiliary Air Station, Yuma, Ariz.

ter, Miss Mary Eliz Cornwell from Solana Beach. The Reuters live in Rancho Santa Fe when they aren't enjoying the pleasures of Sandpiper. Their weekend called for sun, pool and shuffleboard.

On the golfing side, a score of owners were participating in the various links activities. Among them Charles Fairbanks, Thornton Howells, Gerry Greims, Harvey Kruse.

Other golfing weekenders were the Charles Hesters and Lester Steffansons from Newport Beach. The Orange County lumber executives played at La Quinta along with Sandpiper owner, Earle Phillips of Disneyland's "general store."

Other Newporters on hand included harbor area lawyer, J. E. T. Rutter and his wife. They were guests of Sandpiper developer George M. Holstein III.

Not all the guys and gals played golf all of the time. The weekly Sandpiper bridge met at the Kirk Steiner cottage where Mrs. Steiner was hostess. On hand were Mrs. Amos Bomberger, Mrs. Vaughn Edgar, Mrs. Jack Pollard and her friend, Mrs. Ruffcorn, Mrs. Bea Dungee, Mrs. William A. Seiter, Mrs. Calypso Liddell, Mrs. Mark Haines, Mrs. Robert A. Powers, Mrs. Sherry Wareskjold and Mrs. C. A. Winetrou. Mrs. Liddell will host the group this week.

'Fun Over Forty' Party Tonight

DESERT HOT SPRINGS —The Desert Hot Springs Masonic Club will serve as host for the "Fun Over Forty" party at 7:30 p.m. tonight, in the Adult Recreation Center here.

Victor R. Jublou, president of the Masonic Club, will welcome visitors, and aid in serving. Mrs. Marguerite Burmesch, Park Board member, will be in charge of the party, which drew 70 persons in its last session.

Bridge, canasta and pinocle will be played.

Units of the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at El Toro regularly travel to the Yuma air station for gunnery, bombing, instrument and night flying practice.

Poe Explains Rules Used To Dispossess

Routine Utilized In Eviction of Tenants Revealed

Constable Howard F. Poe, in response to many inquiries, today outlined the procedure to be used in dispossessing a tenant.

First, Poe said, the landlord must serve the tenant with a three-day notice to pay the rent or quit occupancy. This notice can be served by the landlord or anyone over the age of 18, or it can be served by the constable who will charge a small fee.

IF THE TENANT is not present to receive the notice it can be left with any person who is over the age of 18. Then, if no one can be located, a copy of the notice should be attached to the door or wall so it can be seen upon arrival of the tenant. Then another copy addressed to the tenant at the address in question should be mailed by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested.

If the tenant does not move or pay after the first service, Poe said another notice should be served. This notice should be drawn up by an attorney as this notice will be the basis for court action if the tenant fails to move.

SECOND, THE constable said, if the tenant does not vacate or pay after the two notices have been served, your attorney may prepare a summons and complaint known as an unlawful detainer. The tenant will have three days to comply.

If he fails to comply, the attorney may call upon the court for a judgment which is known as a writ of possession. With this writ the tenant may be evicted from the premises in question.

Third, Poe said, if the demand made for any payments at the time of the issuance of the writ is not paid, the plaintiff (or landlord) may levy upon any personal property of the defendant.

Jack Didn't Do It

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — The credit for coloring leaves often goes to Jack Frost, but Michigan State University horticulturists say the color change would take place whether there was frost or not.

In summer, green chlorophyll masks the other pigments in the leaves, the horticulturists report. During the fall, the plants slow down production of the chlorophyll and the other colors show through.

Sachau Funeral Due Saturday At Wiefels Here

Funeral services for Barbara B. Sachau, 63, 67-901 Highway 111, will be held at 1:30 a.m. Saturday from the Wiefels and Son chapel, with the Rev. John A. Hudson, pastor of the Church of Christ, officiating.

Interment will follow in Desert Memorial Park.

Mrs. Sachau died at 1:22 a.m. Wednesday, at her home, due to cancer.

A native of New Orleans, she had been a resident of Palm Springs for 15 years.

Survivors include two daughters, Jacqueline Powers and Joyce M. Fuller, both of Cathedral City; two brothers, Fred J. Buckel of Bell, and Edward Buckel of New Orleans, La.; two sisters, Jacobena Heintz and Justine Stevens, both of New Orleans, and three grandchildren.

Today is Friday, Jan. 27, the 27th day of the year with 338 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

On this day in history: In 1756, Austrian composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was born.

In 1832, English clergyman and mathematician Charles Dodgson was born. Under the name of Lewis Carroll he wrote "Alice in Wonderland."

In 1850, American labor leader Samuel Gompers was born.

In 1880, Thomas Alva Edison received a patent for an electric incandescent lamp.

In 1885, American composer Jerome Kern was born.

Thought for today: American politician John James Ingalls said: "The purification of politics is an iridescent dream."

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — "X-pilot," a half-hour documentary about test pilot Scott Crossfield and the space rocket ship X15, is scheduled for Monday, Feb. 6 as ABC-TV's "Bell & Howell Close-Up" special.

Hans Conried and Pat Carroll have joined the cast of "Private Eye, Private Eye," the Max Liebman comedy special that will star Ernie Kovacs and Edie Adams. Air date: Wednesday, March 8 on CBS-TV.

BOB HOPE's next NBC-TV special, on Wednesday, Feb. 15, will depart from the music and comedy format to award gold statuettes to leading athletes of 1960.

Lucille Ball's CBS-TV special, "Lucy Goes to Broadway," is expected to be filmed in April for viewing next November. A future

International Telemeter Co., now testing pay-TV near Toronto, Canada, is preparing to introduce its closed circuit pay-TV programming in Little Rock, Ark.

ABC-TV slipped a "Hong Kong" re-run into the "Naked City" time slot Wednesday night after unrelenting a first-run "Hong Kong" earlier in the evening. You dig? Somewhere out there in television-land, I know there is a confused "Naked City" fan who is trying to figure out when it was that New York City's Chinatown became a British crown colony.

"The Devil Makes Sunday" was a thoughtful drama that needed more time to unfold and build into the haunting conscience-jolter it might have been. Dane Clark, starring in the "U.S. Steel Hour" play, tended to lean too hard on a characterization that couldn't support his emotional weight.

RALPH BELLAMY will portray an Ernest Hemingway-type novelist when he stars in "The Haven" on CBS-TV's "June Allyson Show" for Monday, March 6.

CBS-TV hopes to move "The Rifleman," starring Chuck Connors, from ABC-TV to its own Tuesday night schedule starting in the fall. The off-beat Western is considered an ideal follow-up to re-runs of "Gunsmoke," which takes a 7:30 EST time slot on CBS-TV next season.

SID CAESAR HAS signed to perform as a guest star on "25 Years of Life," an NBC-TV special for Thursday, March 2 which Bob Hope emcees.
